Farmingville, NY - Brookhaven Supervisor Ed Romaine recently attended Court of Honor ceremonies for Cody and Justin Pugal in recognition of the brothers' attaining the rank of Eagle Scout, the highest rank in the Boy Scouts of America. For their Eagle projects, Cody and Justin designed and constructed garden entrances to St. Peter and Paul Church in Manorville.

"Eagle Scouts are the leaders of tomorrow, and from what I can tell by the achievements and community service of Cody and Justin, our future will be in good hands," said Supervisor Romaine

Since the first Eagle Scout Award was presented in 1912, only four percent of all Scouts have attained the Eagle Scout rank.
